Frequently Asked Questions

Does this tool spray and recover?

Yes. This model applies cleaning solution and recovers through the perforated vacuum head.

Are quick disconnects included?

No. Quick disconnects are sold separately unless specifically added as an option.

Can this be used on upholstery?

Yes. It is also useful on fine upholstery fabric where a gentle perforated recovery edge is preferred.

Is this the same as the recovery-only curtain tool?

No. Recovery-only tools are for vacuum recovery after pre-spraying. The C15106 is a spray-and-recovery curtain cleaning tool.

What machine does it fit?

It is intended for professional carpet cleaning extractors and truckmounts using compatible vacuum hose and solution line connections.
