The Vapor Clean TR 5 offers exceptional cleaning capabilities with durability exceeding today's standards in a price range you can afford.

The TR5 is by far the most appealing steam vapor cleaner on the market in this price range. We recommend this machine for the homeowner or light commercial user that plans to give it a good run for their money, and have expectations of this machine servicing their needs for many years to come. The design, materials and overall quality make a winning combination to create the #1 selling home steam vapor cleaner on the American market today. The internal temperature of our boilers are higher or equal any true vapor cleaner on the market.

The TR5 is now operating with a digital micro-processor for the latest in advanced technology.

This feature will give the consumer longer lasting components, yielding longer overall life of your investment.

No more filthy oven cleaners and toxic fumes...
save time, decrease the mess and protect your health

The TR5 is constructed of materials chosen only to improve the quality, not cut corners and cost of materials. The stainless steel exterior and stainless 18/10 AISI 304 quality boiler speaks for itself. The cylindrical shape of the boiler is extremely efficient with no cold spots which means the heating element does not work harder than necessary, more efficient electrically compared to most steam cleaners that use square or rectangular designed boilers,

The TR5 offers such features as an industrial quality detachable hose which allows easier storage and comfort in knowing that your machine is perfectly safe to pull along as you clean. This design is far more solid and durable than other outdated designs with attached hoses. Other features include a pressure regulator knob allowing you to adjust the amount of steam/pressure output for your specific cleaning task. The numbered pressure gauge will give you an exact indication at all times of the performance of your machine to optimize your cleaning. The temperature and pressure is stated as per manufacturers specifications of up to 4.5 bar (65+ psi) and 302° boiler temperature.
