You will find that your natural ranking with all the search engines will be greatly improved. The amount of backward links points to the domain popularity on the Internet: the more links are given to this recourse, the more the resource is important and its traffic increases.

Please place our web address on your website too. The mutually back and forth linking is one of the things that

Google.com and other search engine really like. "Reciprocal linking between websites is an important part of the search engine optimization process because Google uses link popularity algorithms (defined as the number of links that lead to a particular page and the anchor text of the link) to rank websites for relevancy. In recent years, resource links have grown in importance because most major search engines have made it plain that—in Google's words-- "quantity, quality, and relevance of links count towards your rating.""
