HydraMaster 000-113-012 RADIATOR, KUBOTA WG972

Manufacturer: HydraMaster

HydraMaster 000-113-012 Radiator for Kubota WG972 Engine
The HydraMaster 000-113-012 Radiator is a replacement engine cooling system component identified in HydraMaster factory parts documentation for equipment equipped with the Kubota WG972 engine. This radiator is used to help maintain proper engine operating temperatures by transferring heat from the engine coolant to the surrounding air.
HydraMaster identifies this component as RADIATOR, KUBOTA (COMES W/ ENGINE) in the Titan 575 engine assembly documentation. The radiator is shown in the factory engine assembly drawing and is associated with the Kubota-powered Titan 575 truckmount carpet cleaning system.

HydraMaster Titan 575 Engine Cooling System
The HydraMaster Titan 575 truckmount carpet cleaning machine uses an engine cooling system to regulate operating temperatures during extended equipment operation. The radiator circulates and cools engine coolant to help prevent excessive engine temperatures.
A damaged, leaking, clogged, or deteriorated radiator can reduce cooling efficiency and contribute to engine overheating. Replacing a defective radiator helps restore proper cooling system operation when other cooling system components are functioning correctly.
Replacement Radiator Identification
HydraMaster OEM Reference: 000-113-012
Engine Manufacturer: Kubota
Engine Model: WG972
Equipment Manufacturer: HydraMaster
Equipment Model Reference: Titan 575
The factory parts illustration identifies the radiator as part number 000-113-012. Verify the original equipment part number and radiator configuration before ordering.
Important Ordering Information
Order by part number, not by image. Product illustrations are provided for identification purposes and may not represent every detail of the actual replacement component.
