American Training Videos Hospital Series 1052 Safety for Hospital Environmental Services Technicians
[AMT-1052]

Portrays common causes of accidents and how to prevent them.
Presents a complete overview of health care safety and how it can be implemented into every cleaning routine. It's a vital reminder for environmental services personnel that they cannot take for granted what they currently know and must follow proper onâ€'theâ€'job safety procedures.
Training presentation shows how to handle chemicals, equipment safety, and waste handling safety, elevator, ladder safety, fire safety and last but not least, when is the right time to call 911 during an emergency?
