Abatement Technologies SureTest Universal Circuit Analyzer to Measure Electrical Estimated Load On Line

Manufacturer: Abatement Technologies

Handheld Circuit Analyzer Safely Determines Estimated Load On Line
The SureTest CA1000 Handheld Circuit Analyzer utilizes patented technology to enable a technician to know how much amperage is being drawn on a circuit. With this information, it can easily be determined exactly how many pieces of equipment can be put on that circuit without overloading and tripping a breaker.

Unique features of the CA1000 unit include:

- Performs other electrical tests to identify potential wiring problems
- Bright Display - 128 x 64 OLED with Backlight
- Accurate
- Weighs only 9.4 ounces
- Dimensions - 6.4" L x 3" W x 1.4" D

Sales tax is collected for GA and TX unless you have a resale certificate on file that you are going to rent out this equipment.
